

CV Jana Marsik

Jana Marsik was born in Kiel by the Baltic Sea. After school she took up black & white photography and travelled to the USA, Boston, where she interned at several independent film companies and created her own video and film projects.

From 1997 to 2003, she studied Cinematography at HFF Konrad Wolf Filmschool in Babelsberg.

Since then she has worked as a DoP for feature films, commercials and documentaries for directors like Detlev Buck, Lars Büchel, Leander Haußmann and Christian Zübert, Edward Berger, to name but a few.

In 2002 she won the Junior Prize at the German Camera Awards for best photography in the short films “Schlorkbabies an der Raststätte” by Petra Volpe und “Long Shot” by Klaus Charbonnier.

For her camera work for both and “Same Same but Different”, a German-Cambodian Love Story by Detlev Buck and “Lippels Traum” by Lars Büchel she received the Bavarian Film Award and she was for which she was also nominated at the German Film Awards.

Jana is fluent in English and proficient in Czech and French.
